VETERANS OF 3 WARS JOIN IN MEMORIAL

KAHKI AND BLUE DECORATE THE GRAVES OF FALLEN COMRADES.

SERVICE HELD SUNDAY

March Made to Cemetery in Morning —Prof. Miller and N. Sisson Make Addresses at Meeting.

The veterans of three wars joined in the annual memorial services Sunday to pay honor to their dead comrades. A new spirit was added this year in the participation of the American Legion men who took their places with the civil war and Spanish war veterans.

The church program was held at 2:30 Sunday afternoon at the First Christian church. Early Sunday morning a committee from the G. A. R. and Legion Post, visited each cemetery and decorated the graves of the soldiers. The flags to have been placed on the graves did not arrive until Monday morning and were taken out then and distributed.

The principal features of the church program were addresses by Prof. Harry A. Miller, and N. Sisson, and the presentation of a flag, given by the G. A. R. and W. R. C. to the James Edward Gray Post, American Legion and in turn presented by the post to the Ray David Post, veterans of Foreign Wars, as the latter organization is a newly formed one and has no flag, while the American Legion Post has a flag given them by the D. A. R.

The church services were in charge of the pastor, Rev. R. E. Snodgrass. The invocation was given by the Rev. R. C. Holliday. The musical program included a number of patriotic songs, sung by the audience, with Miss Ola Smith, organist. Prof. Miller's address was a eulogy upon Abraham Lincoln. Mr. Sisson spoke upon the debt the nation and community owes to the American Legion men and at the close of his talk, Rev. T. J. Puckett, commander of the G. A. R., presented the flag to the American Legion post, which was received by the commander, Walter S. Todd and Edward Condon, standard bearer, and Dr. H. S. Rowlett. These officers in turn presented the flag to the Ray David Post and it was accepted by Cory Cook, Albert Pennington and Bert Blatter of that organization.

Two excellent readings were also given, one "Lincoln's Gettysburg Speech," by Miss Mabel Raines, and "The Long Long Trail," by Miss Ruth Miller.

An immense crowd attended the services, filling both auditorium and gallery of the church.

Representative William Job has withdrawn as a candidate for state senator from this district. In a statement to the Democrat-Forum today, he writes:

"My son, Eldon L. Job, has accepted a position in the Marion County National Bank at Knoxville, Ia. This leaves me without reliable help on the farm, which will compell me to abandon the race for State Senator and because of the lack of farm help I have not been over the district, and it would not be possible for me to take the time now.

"WILLIAM JOB."

This will leave M. E. Ford as the only candidate for the Democratic nomination for state senator. The last day of filing is Friday and it is not expected there will be any other candidate on the Democratic ticket.

LIFE WAS A MISERY TO HER

Says this Woman Until Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Carrollton, Ky.—"I suffered almost two years with female weakness. I could not walk any distance, ride or take any exercise at all without resting. If I swept the floor or did any kind of work it would bring my sickness on. I was weak and languid, had no energy, and life was a misery to me. I was under the care of a good physician for several months and tried other remedies. I had read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. After taking twelve bottles I found myself much improved and I took six more. I have never had any more trouble in that respect since. I have done all kinds of work and at present am an attendant at a State Hospital and am feeling fine. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound to dozens of my friends and shall always recommend it."—LILLIAN THARP, 824 S. 6th St., Carrollton, Ky.
